Dear．Mr．Mackey，
I think that you will probably win this year too．You＇ve done so well on these races I think you＇ll smoke everyone at the 2009 race this year．My class and I are starting this new Iditarod project．We have to practically do a biography on the racers that we think have the best chance of winning this year＇s race I have you as my top person．How is Hobo？I hope that he is doing well so you can do better this year than you did last year．Next time you see Jeff ask him how Elim went．Hope you do well and make Jeff eat your Snow！！！
