

Cairns-Leadership Conference Bound

Celeste High School Junior Ashley Cairns has been selected to participate in this summer's Texas Farm Bureau Youth Leadership Conference held at Angelo State University in San Angelo. The purpose of this prestigious program is to develop "better prepared leaders and citizens. Qualifying students are in the upper 30% of their class, demonstrate good character and a desire to enhance their leadership abilities," according to the Hunt County Farm Bureau communiqué. "Ashley is well deserving and a role model for her peers. We're really proud of her," stated Celeste High School Principal Ricky Beadles.
